AROUND the TOWNSHIP

It is quite conceivable that at some future date, there may be provision made for free community band concerts on Saturday evenings supported by funds from local communities and the county. Such concerts are a worthy enterprise as they not only provide entertainment during the outdoor summer months, but also they provide free training for local boys and girls who wish to become proficient on some one of the many brass instruments.

In the meantime, have you heard the free concert in the row of sycamores just east of the Niles firehouse? There are no brass or other instruments, but every evening of late just at sundown there is a mighty bird chorus that may be heard a half-block away. Listen in some time.

When the printer makes a mistake the whole world knows it. Our attention was called to a "bonger" in last week's issue. If you didn't notice it, we won't say anything about it. However, we are taking precaution to see that the doctor's and undertaker's advertisements are not run together this week. The treat is on us, Mr. Scott.

It is natural, when you find something good, to use more of it. Mr. L. Dray over at Overacker Station used the Register Classified Column to sell a combination range. He found he could very likely have sold 20 of them if he had them because he got 20 replies off of one 35-cent classified ad. Now, he is using more of them.

Next time you want to buy or sell anything, why not profit by Mr. Dray's example?

Members of the Men's Club of Washington Township enthusiastically praised the dinner served by the Ladies' Guild of the Niles Congregational Church Thursday evening, prepared and served by Mrs. E. A. Ellsworth, president, and a committee. Decorations of autumn fruits and flowers on the tables and about the room added much to the occasion.

The monthly meeting of the Alvarado Farm Home Department was held October 27 at the home of Mrs. M. Rodriguez at Centerville.

Geraldine Rogers, chairman; Adeline Santos, vice chairman; Anna Rose, secretary; Rounilda Rose, publicity chairman.

The monthly prize was awarded to Mary Hughes of Alvarado: Refreshments were served and enjoyed by the 12 members and 2 guests present.

SCOUTS OF TOWNSHIP PREPARING FOR RALLY AND COURT OF HONOR

The district committee of Washington Township, Boy Scouts of America, met on the evening of October 27 in the office of Judge Allen Norris, chairman, at Centerville.

The chief business of the evening was discussion of the coming district rally, which was set for Thursday evening, December 2, at the Washington High School gymnasium. All troops of the township will be represented.

Louis Musick, principal of Decoto Grammar School, was named chairman of the arrangements committee. A court of honor will be held in connection with the rally, under direction of George Coit, chairman of the district court of honor.

Order New Fire Engines At Niles And Irvington

CENTERVILLE—Several firemen and commissioners attended the monthly meeting of the Firemen's Association of Alameda County at San Leandro last week. It was stated that commissioners had been officially appointed as agents of the County Board of Supervisors with authority to purchase equipment.

Due to this arrangement orders have been put in for new engines at Niles and Irvington, the apparatus to cost approximately $6,000 each. Newark is planning a new $5,000 fire hall and Centerville hopes to have a new engine by next summer.

Those attending the meeting from the township were Frank Madrugra, past president of the association, Chief Fred Rogers, Tom Silva, Jr., and George Silva of Centerville; Joe Corey of Irvington; Chief Tony Alves and Clarence Crane of Niles and a number from the Decoto department.

Superintendent Jensen of the Fairmont Hospital addressed the meeting and asked the cooperation of the firemen in pushing the program for new buildings at that institution. The presence of 150 bed-ridden patients in some of the buildings should be considered a hazardous condition under the present set-up, he stated. The firemen's association was invited to make a tour of inspection of the hospital plant.

CROWD EXPECTED AT OLD TIME FAIR

MISSION SAN JOSE—Arrangements are being completed to take care of a capacity crowd at the Old Time Fair to be given at the I. D. E. S. Hall at Mission San Jose on November 11 and 12.

There will be many interesting features including a fish pond, chickens and groceries and fancy booths to entertain those who will attend.

The fair is being conducted as a St. Joseph's Parish benefit, with Matt Whitfield in charge. Admission will be free.

ANNOUNCE MEETINGS OF GARDEN CLASS

DECOTO—The garden class of the Washington Union Night School will meet next Monday at 10 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Herbert Harold for the monthly garden tour conducted by Mrs. Martha Phillips.

The afternoon class will meet at the high school in the visual education room at 2 o'clock. All those interested are invited and there is no fee.

NILES—Efforts to secure a dial telephone system for Niles were started at Monday's luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce. Secretary A. J. Petsche was instructed to write to the telephone company asking for this improvement after the matter was presented to the chamber by George C. Roeding, Jr., of the California Nursery Company.

Niles is still equipped with the horse-and-buggy-day hand crank instrument, all long-distance calls having to be relayed through the Hayward exchange.

Roeding pointed out that delay and additional expense results from the present arrangement of considerable disadvantage to business firms. It is understood that a survey of the district was made by the telephone company about a year and a half ago.

W. B. Sutherland, district manager of the company at Hayward, was in Niles Monday afternoon interviewing various business men. He stated that the survey would be brought up to date and that some definite policy would be announced in about a month.

Change to the dial system will not eliminate any of the positions of those working in the telephone office, it is understood, as employees not needed here will be absorbed in other places. The consumers will pay approximately 25 cents per month extra for the dial instruments. Similar systems have been installed at Newark and Decoto.

Lawrence Sharpe, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, was present and stated that his group had decided upon Neon signs to be leased from the Electrical Products Company at a three-year lease cost of approximately $700.

The Junior Chamber committee is composed of Dr. T. C. Wilson, Dr. E. C. Grau, Cy Solon, these also to serve as a committee for the Senior Chamber with the addition of E. A. Ellsworth. This committee is to work out methods of securing the money to finance the project.

F. V. Jones, chairman of the membership committee, introduced R. C. Attinger, secretary of the Junior Chamber, as a new member.

An invitation was received for members to attend the groundbreaking ceremonies for the new Contra Costa Conduit Sunday afternoon.

SEWAGE DISPOSAL IS COMMISSION TOPIC

DECOTO—Reorganization of the Sanitary Commission of Decoto took place at this week's meeting with the following officers elected: J. P. Calderia, chairman; Charles Brown, secretary. Other commissioners are William Hurst, Frank Thomas and George Smith.

Members of the board joined other delegates from Washington Township at a meeting at the Oakland City Hall Wednesday night where sewage disposal for the bay shore communities was discussed.

ROTARY CLUBS OF NILES AND HAYWARD HEAR ABOUT 'WORDS'

Fred L. Farley, dean of languages of the College of the Pacific at Stockton, gave an interesting talk before a combined meeting of the Hayward and Niles Rotary clubs as the principal part of a program presented in conjunction with a luncheon at the Hotel Belvoir at noon Thursday.

He spoke on "The Romance of Words" and brought greetings from Dr. Tully Knoles, president of the college and district governor of Rotary.

The talk told of words that are born, live and die and the meanings of many of them while they live. The original spelling and meaning of "programme" as compared with its change to "program" and wider usage was cited as an example. Also, "aeroplane" and "air" plane.

The speaker is of the opinion, backed by some authorities, that enough people use a wrong word until it eventually becomes right, even though it is not grammatically correct.

C. W. Kraft, president of the newly organized Niles club, opened the meeting. President Al Fraga of the Hayward Club presided until he turned the meeting over to Ralph Anderson of Hayward for the program.

NEW FIRE ENGINE DUE

Irvington's new fire engine is expected to arrive about the middle of December, states Bob Wright, chairman of the commission. Its cost is about $5,300. It is being assembled at Oakland on a 2½-ton White truck and is fully equipped with all the most modern appliances. Until a fire hall is built it will be housed in Joe Corey's garage.

Chief Corey expects to announce personnel of the fire department next week.

OAKLAND WOMAN STRUCK BY AUTO

Mrs. Santana Cassaro of 760 Ninth Street, Oakland, who alighted from a machine on the Mission San Jose-Warm Springs highway, was struck by a passing car receiving a fractured left arm, head injuries and possible internal injury. Mrs. Carraro was taken to the San Jose Hospital in the Berge Mortuary ambulance.

FOOTBALL CLASSIC HEADS ARMISTICE DAY FESTIVITIES

CENTERVILLE—Armistice Day celebration in Southern Alameda County will center around the Big Game of Centerville and Livermore football teams to be played at the Washington Union High School grounds next Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

A special program will be given before the game, beginning about 1:30 o'clock. Proceeds of the game will be divided between the two teams and the American Legion Posts here and at Livermore to be used for the Christmas fund at the Veterans' Hospital at Livermore.

The game will still be the big game for local fans in spite of the fact that Centerville no longer belongs to the Southern Alameda County League. For many years the two teams have been friendly rivals, their annual meeting being the high spot of the football year.

Washington, now a member of the Santa Clara Valley Athletic League, has played four games and is still undefeated. The two teams seem to be well-matched and the game is expected to be a good one.

Due to the fact that this is the only program planned in the township for Armistice Day a large crowd is expected.

This afternoon, Washington travels to Gilroy where they will play the Gilroy High School at 2:30 o'clock. Several bus loads of rooters will accompany the team. Washington now stands first in the league and hopes are high for a championship.

Preceding the game there will be a parade headed by the color bearers and firing squads of the American Legion Posts of Washington Township and Livermore. The drum corps of the Sons of the Legion of the local post and veterans in general will also participate.

Centerville Man Killed Walking on Highway; Five Are Hurt Over Hallowe'en

NEWARK CHAMBER OF COMMERCE SEEKING HALLOWE'EN CULPRITS

NEWARK—If names of culprits can be ascertained their parents will be asked to pay for damages in Newark resulting from raiding Hallowe'en parties, it was stated at the Chamber of Commerce meeting this week. President Sam Scott was instructed to make an investigation.

It was reported that several windows had been broken and that street and highway signs recently put up by the chamber had been destroyed. It was thought that the damage was done by the older boys.

There was considerable discussion regarding the meeting place, some favoring the present club room and some advocating the Butler Hotel because of better heating facilities for winter meetings. This will be decided at the next meeting.

JUDGE SILVA THREATENS CONTEMPT FOR FRIEND OF OAKLAND DEFENDANT

NILES—Back-seat driving on the highway is bad enough but it won't be tolerated in court, said Judge J. A. Silva after giving an emphatic "panning" to the companion of a defendant who had pleaded guilty to speeding and paid his $10 fine.

The passenger in Eugene Travaglio's car, whose name was not learned, handed out a lot of "chatter", stating the traffic officer had not done his duty in charging Travaglio of Oakland with only 60 miles an hour when he had stated at the time of arrest that the car was doing 65.

"One more word out of you and I'll fine you for contempt of court," the judge said.

And there wasn't another word!

OAKLAND FOLK VISIT HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert D. Allen visited friends in the township Sunday.

European Families Are Preparing Against War, Says Vagabond Traveler

NILES—Purchase of gas masks and other preparations for protection against consequences of the next war are being made by European families, said D. F. Gatchell in addressing the Men's Club of Washington Township at the Congregational Church at Niles last Thursday night.

Mr. Gatchell, former teacher in the Washington Union High School, gave an interesting account of his vagabond trip through Europe last year and pointed out that personal friendship with other countries could do much to eliminate war.

A. J. Petsche was elected president of the club succeeding Jack Boyd. Other officers are Erle Hygelund, vice-president, E. J. Fimentel, secretary and John Dutra, treasurer. The nominating committee consisted of Howard Chadbourne, F. T. Dusterberry and Robert Blacow.

Mr. Chadbourne, charter member of the club, suggested an amendment to the constitution which would provide for a committee consisting of the president, vice-president, secretary and two past presidents, which would pass on names of prospective members before they were submitted to the club for election.

Judge Allen G. Norris, chairman of the program committee, acted as toastmaster. Entertainment was furnished by Tszgafia, others.

Whether it was due to the mischief of witches and goblins or merely a string of coincidences, Hallowe'en brought death, injuries and loss of property, to say nothing of the usual soaped windows, misplaced vehicles and stray signs to this vicinity.

Harry Duarte, 28, of Centerville, was killed while walking on the highway near the Garden of Allah about one o'clock Sunday morning. He was struck by a car driven by Harold Fudenna, R. F. D. Box 55-A, Irvington. Fudenna's car overturned and he and his passenger, Sam Mune, 21, of Centerville, were treated for injuries by Dr. E. C. Grau of Niles. Mune received a dislocated left shoulder and lacerations.

Duarte's injuries were so extensive as to make recognition impossible. The only identification found in his clothes was a dance ticket to the Blue Bird Dance at Newark and Deputy Sheriff Wallace Ebright checked with Miss Lida Francis, past president of the club, ascertaining the name of the purchaser of the ticket.

The body, which was taken to Pratt's Mortuary in Hayward, was identified by a brother, Ernest Duarte. After investigation by George Henningsen, investigator from the District Attorney's office, and Captain J. R. Franck of the California State Highway Patrol, Fudenna was not held.

Newark People Hurt
Mr. and Mrs. William Joseph Gibson of Newark were injured when their car collided with one driven by John Rodriguez Medeiros of 2195-42nd st., Oakland in which Mrs. Fred Dennis of 2109 38th avenue Oakland was a passenger.

The collision occurred at Machado's Corners about 10:30 o'clock Saturday night. Mrs. Gibson suffered lacerations of the scalp, contusions of the head and cerebral concussion. She was taken to the East Oakland hospital. Her husband also received cerebral concussion and lacerations of the face and hands. He returned home (Continued on page 6)

SPOOKS ACTIVE IN IRVINGTON

Spooks and witches concentrated their attention Hallowe'en night on Irvington, it would seem, judging from the piles of debris found next morning around the town monument, in front of the bank and Joe Corey's garage. In fact when Joe saw the old cars, etc., on his sidewalk, he decided not to open the garage at all on Sunday.

Reports of officers, however, indicated that celebrations were confined on the whole to harmless mischief and no serious damage was done anywhere in the township. Of course those who had to wash the soap off the windows and carry off the junk and hunt up lost gates felt serious about it and wished the witches could be found and made to undo the dirty work.

DEPARTED MEMBER OF SCHOOL AND CLUB

CENTERVILLE — Resolutions honoring the memory of Miss E. Marie Sandholdt, vice-principal of the Washington Union High School, were adopted at Tuesday's meeting of the Country Club of Washington Township of which she was a member. The resolutions read:

"Inasmuch as, in the death of Elsie Marie Sandholdt, we the members of the Country Club of Washington Township have lost one of our valuable and devoted members, be it resolved that we express a sense of that loss and that this expression be entered upon our record and also be forwarded to the members of Miss Sandholdt's family and the principal and faculty of Washington Union High School.

"For almost 30 years Miss Sandholdt was a teacher, and later vice-principal of Washington Union High School. Her contribution to that institution can be measured only by the power for good that has gone into hundreds of lives that have felt her influence.

"For several years Miss Sandholdt was a member of this club. It was her desire always to serve her community in a vital and helpful way. For that reason her influence as a teacher went far beyond the confines of the school room. In the same spirit she brought her knowledge and widespread interest as a contribution to our club life.

"She lived up to that admonition of the prophet: What doth the Lord require of thee but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God— To her fine qualities as a teacher, as a club member, as a woman, we here pay tribute and join with others in mourning her loss."

MISS JOSEPHINE VAN HORN WILL WED JOHN

The wedding will occur in the early summer following the graduation of both young people from the University of California. The groom-elect is a student at the agricultural college at Davis.

Mr. Whipple is a member of one of the most prominent families of Washington Township. His late father, Jack Whipple, was a Big C man at the University of California and served as a member of the board of trustees of Washington Union High School.

His mother is Mrs. Edith Harmon Whipple of Whipple Road, Decoto. He is the grandson of Mrs. Lizzie A. Harmon and the late Mr. A. K. P. Harmon, a nephew of Mr. Charles P. Howard of the Howard terminal, and a brother of Robert Whipple, student at Davis Agricultural College, Thomas and Keith Whipple of the Washington Union High School.

The engagement links the names of two of the oldest families in this community. The bride-elect is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Moller, pioneer residents of Oakland, and a niece of Dr. Lillian Moller Gilbreth of Montclair, New Jersey. She is a second cousin of Miss Annie Florence Brown, a sister of Mr. Frederick Van Horn, a sophomore student at the University of California, and Miss Margaret Van Horn, a student at the Piedmont High School. She is president of Pi Phi Delta, women's economics society.

HI SCHOOL PLAY
WINS PLAUDITS OF FULL HOUSE

CENTERVILLE — One of the funniest plays yet presented by Washington Union High School was the three-act comedy entitled "Slightly Delirious," given last Friday night before a packed house.

The performance went off without a hitch, though it was learned later that a considerable "ad libbing" had been done by the cast unnoticed by the audience, which of course is all to the credit of the performers.

A new discovery was John Ferrante of Decoto, who took the lead part as the victim of amnesia who happened into a summer colony where he was later accused of being a jewel thief. His comedy was sustained throughout with seemingly no effort and brought roars of laughter and hearty applause from the audience.

Mary Virginia Bristow, who established her ability as an actress last year as the lead in "Babs" was again one of the best of the cast in her portrayal of the maid who was interested in the Butler, also exceptionally well done by William Silva.

The part of Mrs. Swayne, giddy mother, was well-taken by Margaret Williamson as was the detective role by George Bonde. Arch Sparrows as the crook "Slinkin'" in and out quite satisfactorily and Peter Stark as the policeman contrived to make a real part out of a few lines. Betty Denton as "Lulu" the cause of a lot of trouble, also managed to take a small part and make it interesting.

Other feminine members of the staff who looked quite ornamental both in their sports attire for the first act and dinner formal for the second and third were Lorraine Peterson, Genevieve Andrade, Vermilda DeLuce, Delphine Ornellus and Elizabeth Lindsay.

James Emerson, whose specialty seemed to be catching fainting ladies, was a dapper young business man and a bewildered husband; John Ziegler, another young business man also portrayed his characterization of "Henry Fellows" creditably.

The play was directed by Miss Antoinette Botelho and Miss Jean Wilson. The stage crew consisted of George Mathiesen, Bob Zwissig, Howard Stinhliver, Jack Parry, Doremus Seudder and Donald Costa.

Music between acts consisted of four numbers from Gluck's "Petite Suite de Ballet" by the high school orchestra under the direction of Dwight Thornburg.

CLUB MASQUERADE
WILL BE BIG EVENT OF SOCIAL SEASON

CENTERVILLE—Plans for the masquerade ball to be held at the Washington Union High School gymnasium on Saturday night, Nov. 27, were announced by Mrs. C. E. Anderson, chairman of the ways and means committee, at Tuesday's meeting of the Country Club of Washington Township.

Reservations will be made for private parties for the supper which is to follow the dancing. Sandwiches, ice cream, cake and coffee and cold drinks will be for sale and tables will be set for those who make reservations, notice to be given to Mrs. C. E. Anderson.

Tickets were distributed and those who wish additional ones may secure same from Mrs. C. H. Franklin in Niles, Mrs. Foster in Irvington, Mrs. Olsen in Decoto, Mrs. Kline in Centerville and Mrs. Boyd in Newark.

There will be prizes for men and women wearing the most colorful or the best character costumes to be judged during the grand march. There will be a floor show. Masques will be for sale at the door.

This is expected to be the big social event of the fall season in the township. It takes the place of the annual Mardi Gras ball usually held in January. The public is invited.

Attorney Turns
On Ridicule At
Doe Slayer Trial

NILES—Announcement that Leo Sullivan, Oakland attorney, is to fight a case is always a signal for a full house at the Niles justice court. He appeared last Friday afternoon to defend George Christensen, Oakland hod carrier, charged with killing an illegal deer. He indicated by his method of attack that he would challenge Deputy District Attorney Joe Schenone's witnesses on the grounds of incompetence to qualify as chemists, bug-ologists and what have you.

"How can you tell deer hair from cat hair, deer blood from mountain lion's blood, one bullet from another," were questions he fired at prosecution witnesses.

When D. J. McCarthy, chief witness for the prosecution, stated he had taken a bunch of deer hairs out of the car of the defendant, Sullivan wanted to know what had become of them and McCarthy replied they had "gone with the wind."

Christensen is alleged to have shot a yearling doe near the Calaveras Dam. McCarthy, ranger for the San Francisco Water Department, who apprehended him at 6 o'clock on the morning of Oct. 6, testified that Christensen attempted to run him down when ordered to stop, that the deer had been found still warm not far away together with a rifle said to belong to Christensen, and a piece of canvas similar to one found in Christensen's car.

His testimony was corroborated by Antone Kieho and Manuel Fraga, Deputy Sheriff Henry Vervais, who arrested Christensen, was another witness.

Exhibits entered by the prosecution included the gun, cartridges, two pieces of canvas, a clip from a rifle, the deer and Christensen's car. The last two were not brought into court upon stipulation of the defense attorney.

The trial was continued until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

FORMER RESIDENT OF DECOTO IS LAID
AT REST IN HAYWARD

DECOTO—Friends from Washington Township attended funeral services on Tuesday for Edward Lee Haines, 66, of Hayward, formerly of Decoto. His mother was the first vice-president of the Country Club of Washington Township and the family was one of the most prominent among pioneer settlers. He was the brother of Mrs. May Williams, Henry S. Haines and the late Robert T. Haines and Joseph B. Haines. He was born in the old family home on the Whipple Road.

Haines was a member of Wisteria Parlor No. 127, N. S. G. W. of Alvarado, of the Centerville Knights of Pythias and B. P. O. E.

GIANT TRUCKS CRASH
AT DANGEROUS NILES
CANYON ROAD CROSSING

NILES—Causing renewed interest in doing something about the dangerous crossing at the intersection of the Niles Canyon road and the new highway, local residents witnessed a spectacular accident there last Friday morning.

A truck and trailer coming from the canyon collided with a truck traveling from San Jose, both drivers being slightly injured. The trailer was turned upside down and the San Jose truck crashed into the highway sign and ran up on the curb approaching the underpass. Walnuts and prunes were strewn over the highway.

The accident took place as high school buses and pedestrian pupils of the Niles Grammar School were making the crossing.

The driver of the truck and trailer was E. W. Lewis, Negro, of Route 1, Box 3536, San Jose, and the other driver was John Karle of Salinas.

"It was just luck that school children were not involved in the accident," by-standers said.

LESSON FOR THE WHOLE COUNTY

Publisher Maitland R. Henry of the Livermore Herald, very ably discusses the recent San Leandro Fair and Horse Show which he rightly terms "the fiasco foisted on an uninterested public."

He states that "fortunately no one was hurt except the promoters themselves and no sympathy is being wasted on them."

"Civic organizations and public leaders throughout the county were approached for endorsement by the promoters of the event, individuals who had hopes of developing it to qualify for the state money available to an Alameda County fair," his editorial continues. "There was no enthusiasm for the fair and while there were some promises of cooperation when the plan was first broached, these were later withdrawn."

"It was quickly recognized as purely a commercial enterprise endeavoring to 'horn in' on some easy money and organization after organization took adverse action on requests for endorsement."

"There's one bit of good that will come out of it—promotion of any such scheme in the future will be even more difficult."

Alameda County needs an annual fair and the proper location for it is the southern end of the county. However, there are enough established sponsoring agencies to do the job without turning it over to promoters.

Meanwhile, the county is losing by failure to participate in state money set aside for assistance in paying established fair premium lists. And, the state money will continue to be a target for promoters to shoot at.

MASONS INDORSE GRAND LODGE ACTION ON OLD AGE STATE PENSIONS

MASONIC HOME, DECOTO—Judging from reports from various sections of the state the action of the recent communication of the grand lodge of Masons in adopting the recommendation of the board of trustees of the two Masonic homes relative to old age state pensions for such of the residents of the Decoto home who are eligible has created increased interest in the home.

And so far as can be learned the action of the grand lodge is receiving the endorsement of the craft.

In the November issue of the "Pentagon News", published by Pentalpha Lodge, No. 202, Los Angeles, Wallace Durham, Worshipful Master, in his extended report of grand lodge matters has this pleasant reference to the Decoto home:

"One of the most interesting reports rendered was concerning the affairs of the Masonic homes. This is a subject in which we are keenly interested. An interesting sidelight was brought out regarding the State Old Age Pension. Many of the members of the home in Decoto are eligible for the pension and certain complications have developed in this respect."

"It was decided to allow these old people to apply and receive such pensions, in which case they must either remove from the home or the pension is turned over to the home to assist in their keep. This seems to be a very fair and equitable method of handling the problem."

In another section of his report the alert master of this progressive lodge says:

"On Monday afternoon your officers, together with their ladies and several hundred other visiting delegates, visited the Masonic home at Decoto. Transportation was furnished by the grand lodge over the bay bridge and return by way of San Mateo. This annual visitation is always one of the most interesting phases of grand lodge activities."

"Here we spent a very pleasant afternoon looking over the home and renewing acquaintance with Pentalpha's two brethren who are residing there, Brothers William Engle and Robert Righetti. Both appeared happy and cheerful and glad to welcome us and send greetings to any of the brethren who remember them."

And also the following pleasing additional mention of the home, bearing the heading, "Souvenir":

"When the members of the grand lodge visited the Masonic Home at Decoto on Oct. 11 each was presented a souvenir badge issued by the 'Masonic Home News' in behalf of the Home's members, which read as follows:

TO OUR GUESTS

This is our day of days, The day that each of us awaits To welcome you within our gates That we may here extend to you The same warm friendship that

Shots of Big Game Literally Flown to Press on Backs of Diminutive Pigeon Carriers

NILES—Considerable "sleuthing" on the part of several persons has failed to divulge owners of carrier pigeons who took films from the recent California-U. S. C. football game to some newspaper or newsreel office. However, a number of local people who attended the game got a thrill from the sight, including Mrs. Julia S. Cull who has written the following comment for The Register:

We went to the Cal.-U. S. C. game Saturday and enjoyed every minute of it, from the time we parked the car till we reached the stadium. Along the way children small and big, were bravely holding out signs, "75 cents and $1.00" advertising their drive ways for rent. Three small girls dressed in costumes were serving pink lemonade in front of their home.

In the stadium there was a riot of brilliant coloring, mingling pom-poms, corsages and bright colored dresses and hats. Everyone enjoying themselves. Even the vendors who climb endless stairs were wearing broad smiles.

Then the incident for which this was written occurred. During the last of the second quarter, suddenly over the field appeared a large bird, apparently fighting bravely for altitude. It circled frantically once, then twice and as it leveled off a blue tube on which the sun glinted brightly could be plainly seen on its back.

Suddenly we realized it was a carrier pigeon, a roll of football films on its back. It circled again, skirting the rim of the stadium high above the pennants and having gained that altitude headed off into the distance. We then watched down among the cameramen and one by one three more pigeons were released. The films, though light must have been heavy for the pigeons for they had to fight for altitude.

As each one rose and circled the packet of films could plainly be seen as the sun glinted on the roll.

I don't know when I have felt more inspired or impressed. The game was a great game. The moment for me was the unerring flight of those homing pigeons lessening time and space to the whole year through.

You to us have freely given; So we may now, in this, our peaceful haven.

Express to you our thanks in many little ways.

That this may be for you the day of days!

Reference is made by Mr. Durham to the 1000 badges gotten out by the "Masonic Home News", with the compliments of the Hayward Journal, and which were distributed to the excursionists, by Chairman Andy Burke, grand lodge activities committee, as the buses left the San Francisco Masonic Temple.

Explorer Tells Club Members About Ecuador

CENTERVILLE — Members of the Country Club of Washington Township went adventuring to far corners of the world at their meeting Tuesday as they listened to an account of the air journey made by D. C. Demarest, mining engineer of San Francisco, who left the Oakland Airport on March 15, 1936 for a 10,000 mile trip to Ecuador and back. That was a few months before he reached his seventieth birthday. He is planning to go back and engage in historical research work in the mountains of Ecuador.

Also on Tuesday's program was Arthur Kimber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kimber of Niles. His rendition of a piano number, "Nocturne in G Major" by Chopin was received with enthusiastic applause. Although still a freshman at Washington Union High School Arthur is acknowledged as one of the young musicians of this vicinity of exceptional ability.

With Mr. Demarest was Luis E. Ahly, direct descendant of the famous King Ati of the original inhabitants of Ecuador, invaded in early history by the Incas generally known as natives of that country. Mr. Ahly is a graduate of the University of Quito, Ecuador, and is an officer in the national army of that country. He has been in America for the past 15 years, studying the language and is at present in the tailoring business in San Francisco.

When 17 years of age, he said, his father advised him to learn a trade, which he resolved to do when he came to America. He will accompany Mr. Demarest to Ecuador where they will be a part of a research expedition headed by Dr. Luciano Andrade Marin. Results of this research are expected to revolutionize the ancient history of Ecuador.

Mr. Demarest said that when he set out on his air journey he was discouraged because of his age.

"I found air travel a pleasant and comfortable mode of travel for any age," he said. "Beside, in trying to avoid one danger, we often step into another. When I returned I was in an automobile wreck on the Redwood Highway and was confined to the hospital for two months, though I had made the 10,000 mile trip by air without one sign of discomfort."

The cost of the round trip, including hotel bills, meals and all incidentals was $706.95. Most of the flying was done by day and the nights were spent in good hotels. He carried less than 55 pounds of luggage. The last leg of the trip was made in a flying boat.

Following the publication of his book, "An Adventure at Three-Score and Ten", which was written merely to inform his friends at home of his travels, Mr. Demarest was knighted by the government of Ecuador.
